The month presents an opportunity for children and young people to learn more about Black history and to celebrate the contributions Black people have made to society	Use the powerpoint to explore with the children what Black History month is?  Talk about the music that opened our worship. Explain to the children that this song 'Lift every voice and sing' is considered the Black national anthem. The lyrics of Lift Every Voice and Sing serves as a reminder for Black Americans that each generation has had to lift their voices, along with those within their community, to demand and protect their human rights. 'High as the list'ning skies, Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.'
