Monday	Remembrance	The service of others for our future	https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/articles/znkxjsq Watch the video above to help to answer the question: 'What is Remembrance day?' The video serves as an introduction to the acts of remembrance on Remembrance Day (11 November) and Remembrance Sunday (second Sunday of November). The video includes parades at The Cenotaph in central London on Remembrance Sunday and interviews with members of the Armed Forces and the general public on why they think it is important to remember the sacrifice made by others to preserve our freedoms. The video ends with a solemn reminder that Remembrance isn't just about the past - it's also about learning from history so that we can continue to preserve peace for future generations. Video questions When was the first Remembrance Day held? (11 November 1919 - the year after WW1 ended) Who are we honouring on Remembrance Day (the Armed Forces and all those whose lives have been affected by war and conflict) When is Remembrance Sunday (second Sunday in November) What happens on Remembrance Sunday (There are parades, a two-minute silence, wreaths are placed at The Cenotaph, etc)

			Why do we see lots of poppies at Remembrance time? (Poppies were one of the only flowers that grew on the battlefields of WW1 and became adopted as a symbol for veterans' organisations - such as the Royal British Legion. Final words: '...so that we can continue to live in peace in the future.'
Tuesday	Remembrance	The service of others for our future	Visit the village War Memorial for a 2 minute silence at 11am, asking the children to take this time to think and reflect. Remembrance Day and the time of Remembrance is about honouring and respecting all of the people that have been involved in war and conflict... It is also a time to reflect and think about the past generations of people like our grandparents and great-grandparents and the sacrifices they have made for us... Think about anyone you may know who has made sacrifices for you... And also think about the men and women who work to keep us safe such as the Army, Police, Firefighters, Air force and Navy. Conclude with the prayer 'Dear God, We want to say thank you for all of those who have protected our freedom and sacrificed their lives in wars and conflict, and all those who continue to protect us today. Help us to remember them and honour what they have done by respecting them and never forgetting them. Amen.' Blue cross education live assembly – Animals in WW1
